"Isn't that jazz?

Yes it isn't! "

2017: An important jubilee year for Ostinato: celebrating 40 years on stage with a big Gala concert in their hometown Vienna and a jubilee tour as well! The band was founded in the middle of the seventies. From the start Tommy Böröcz was the driving power (as drummer & writer) of the project. In the eighties Rens Newland (a Dutchman in Vienna) joined the band as guitarist and writer and in the following decades these two artists shared the musical directing and the band organizing. Ostinato has gained an established name in European Funk, Fusion and Latin Jazz, the influence of which they took home from a tour in South America. Besides the steady line-up (as listed at the right side below), here are a few of the other great musicians that participated in this project over the years: Wolfgang Puschnig, Bumi Fian, Harry Sokal, Gina Charito, Peter Ponger, Bobby Dodge, Aaron Wonesch, Andreas Haderer, Martin Fuss. The jubilee album contents exclusively original compositions and all the aspects of the typical Ostinato sound are represented. From straight Funk through more complicated Fusion Jazz to Latin Jazz, plus three special dedications to Jimi Hendrix, Joe Zawinul and Miles Davis.
